The social and economic sustainability of society largely depends on the training of personnel in the secondary education system and higher education as a key parameter for the development of human resources of the future. Colleges and universities have already become the main platform for the development of technological and personnel sovereignty and youth policy in Russia. How to transform the basic processes of the vocational education system: education, science, infrastructure, partnership in the interests of the sustainability of society? How do you work with young people in this paradigm? The discussion is attended by the heads of the region, heads of federal executive authorities, rectors of universities and international experts. Moderators: Evgeny SZHENOV Invited to participate: Igor BABUSHKIN, Governor of the Astrakhan Region; Pavel SHEVTSOV, Deputy Head of Rossotrudnichestvo; Marina SOFRONOVA, Deputy Director of the Department of State Policy in the Field of Secondary Vocational Education Vocational Training of Ministry of Education of the Russian Federation Viktor BASYUK Vice President of Russian Authors' Society (RAO), Dean of the Faculty of Pedagogical Education of Lomonosov Moscow State University Grigory GUROV, Chairman of the Board, Russian Movement of Children and Youth "Movement of the First"; Dmitry GUZHEL'YA, Deputy General Director of Russia – Land of Opportunity; Egor UGAROV, Minister of Education and Science of the Astrakhan Region; Igor KOROTCHENKO, Director of the Caspian Institute for Strategic Studies; Marina BOROVS'KAYA, President of Southern Federal University; Natalia TRUKHANOVS'KAYA, Rector of the Pushkin State Russian Language Institute; Alexander ZHILKIN, Senior Vice President for the Caspian region of Eurasia Management LLC, Konstantin MARKELOV, Rector of Astrakhan Tatishchev State University) Participants: forum participants
